
TECHNICALLY SPEAKING

Closing the Gap

Technology that works for you and not the other way around

We know that in today's world, technology can be the deciding factor in managing a successful practice. We also recognize that the way people utilize technical resources is very personal and that a one-size-fits-all approach just doesn't work. With this in mind, we have put together one of the most reliable, comprehensive, and flexible technology platforms available today.

As part of our program, Fulcrum Advisors are given access to NetX360®, Pershing Managed Solutions, and Advent's Axis®, Internet based technology platforms designed specifically to help streamline your daily workflow so that you can concentrate your efforts on managing client accounts and developing new revenue opportunities.

The keystone of our technology platform is NetX360®, a Windows based program also accessible via wireless device. NetX360's® multi-function capability provides investment professionals with 24/7 access to both their commission and fee-based business and offers up-to-the-minute market and corporate data and commentary. Dynamic and ever-expanding, NetX360® facilitates access to resources and information specifically designed to help you manage your practice and client accounts quickly, accurately, and efficiently. Its customizable framework enables you to configure your screen according to your own specifications - for more information, go to www.pershing.com/netx360.html. Following is a snap-shot of the depth and scope of its on-line solutions.

Among the standardized functions universal to all Fulcrum Advisors:
